Legendary Bob Foulkrod to be featured guest at Eastern Chapter of the Wild Sheep Foundation Annual Hunting & Fishing Trip

LANCASTER, PA – Legendary Professional Hunter and television personality Bob Foulkrod will be the featured guest at the Eastern Chapter of the Wild Sheep Foundation (Formerly Eastern Chapter Foundation for North American Wild Sheep) 19th annual hunting and fishing show, January 28-30, 2010 at the Lancaster Host Resort and Conference Center.

As hunting's most visible and likable personality, Bob Foulkrod's incisive commentary on the sport can be seen, heard and read all across North America! As star of Bass Pro Shops "Real Hunting" and "Winchester Legends," Bob Foulkrod has hunted everything from the torrid plains of Africa to the icy wastelands of the Arctic. He was also inducted into the Anderson Archery International Bowhunters Hall of Fame in 1993.

The Eastern Chapter of the Wild Sheep Foundation Convention features over 65 exhibitors, 4 live auctions and a silent auction. Auction items include domestic and international hunts, art, merchandise and more! Bob Foulkrod will be actively involved by hosting a Meet & Greet/Wild Game Social, holding a hunting seminar, and will be speaking at one of the banquets. He will also be exhibiting at the show.

For more information on the convention please visit the Eastern Chapter of the Wild Sheep Foundation website at www.ecfnaws.org or contact the office at 717.336.3743.

Eastern Chapter of the Wild Sheep Foundation is a 501(c)3 established in 1991 that raises money to support the conservation of wildlife and their natural habitats and have given away over two million dollars to date. A list of grant in aids and past and present organizations we support is available on the website.
